Proudly presents

The 2008 Pennsylvania Summit on the Paralegal Profession

Saturday
September 13, 2008

Penn College
Williamsport, PA
10:00 a.m.

Your Moderator

Kathleen M. Smith, Esq.

Ms. Smith is the Coordinator of the Paralegal Studies Program at the Community College of Philadelphia (CCP) where she is also a Professor and a past Assistant Dean. She is a member of CCP's Middle States Steering Committee and Curriculum Facilitation Team, and she is the initial developer of CCP's Professional/Technical Studies degree. She has developed Paralegal CLEs and has received a College Foundation grant to develop a Paralegal Mentor Program. Our moderator has presented to multiple AAFPE national conferences, the Philadelphia Association of Paralegals, and the Philadelphia Legal Secretaries Association. Private law firms call on her services to teach paralegal seminars, and she has been called to testify at trial as an expert witness on paralegal employment.

Ms. Kathleen Smith
J.D. Antioch School of Law
B.A. cum laude College of the Holy Cross

Ms. Smith has a wealth of experience both as an attorney and as a paralegal educator, and the Keystone Alliance is thrilled to present her as your moderator for today's discussions at the 2008 Pennsylvania Summit on the Paralegal Profession.
